

President George L. Hanbury II, Ph.D., invites you to join him for the inaugural Faculty Symposium.

This will be the first in a series hosted by the president, during which a panel of faculty members will present on a topic suggested by the Faculty Advisory Council. All faculty members are invited to attend and light refreshments will be served.

Date Thursday, September 1, 2011

Topic Sex, Lies, and Politicians

A discussion centered on aspects of public life by colleagues who have lived through some of the issues concerning opening one's life to the media.

Speakers

Irving Rosenbaum, D.P.A., Ed.D., M.P.A., NSU Health Professions Division provost, is an NSU alumnus who served in city government for many years at various times in his career.

David Thomas, M.D., J.D., NSU Health Professions Division professor and chair in the Department of Surgery and Division of Correctional Medicine, is a physician and attorney who served a decade in the Florida House of Representatives (1984–1994).

Location Faculty Shark Club (Rosenthal Building)

Time 4:30–6:00 p.m.

RSVP Lynn Larose at kl698@nova.edu or (954) 262-2116 by Thursday, August 25

Save the date. Future topics will be

- 10.06.11 | Teaching Dick and Jane to Read at University: What Works?
- 11.03.11 | Positive Psychology: Will We Be Happier?
- 12.01.11 | Where Have You Gone Joe DiMaggio?
Are We Allowed to Have Heroes Anymore?