It is my pleasure to invite you to the inaugural Nova Southeastern University College of Health Care Sciences Scholarship Golf Tournament. The tournament is designed to involve the community in development of our future generation of health care professionals by supporting a scholarship fund. The scholarship will benefit students with financial need who maintain a sufficient grade point average. Your support of the golf tournament is essential to assist students requiring financial help. I, as well as the committee, look forward to a successful fund-raising opportunity and to this yearly event. We thank you for your participation.

Sincerely,
Richard E. Davis, Ed.D.
Dean, College of Health Care Sciences
