

Bowling for a Cause

This year's event supports RBI, Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities, a MLB youth program offering children ages 13-18 years old, who live in disadvantaged areas, the opportunity to participate in organized baseball. Locally the Miami Marlins supply the uniforms, umpires and equipment for more than 500 children. The program is designed to promote interest in baseball, academic achievement and social responsibility in undeserved and disadvantaged areas of South Florida.

In addition a portion of the proceeds of the tournament will continue to fund two Cliff Floyd Foundation scholarships for the Nova Southeastern University Sport and Recreation Management students who are playing a major role in planning the tournament as part of their classroom experience.
